Your Sesquicentennial Membership support helps the

Sitka History Museum

use the power of History to preserve our past, share our stories and connect people to our rich cultural heritage that is uniquely Sitka.

When Cultural heritage is promoted and interpreted in museums, it becomes a demonstrated economic asset and an essential component of a vibrant economy, providing an infrastructure that attracts tourists and talent and enhances business development. Consequently, people are drawn to communities that have preserved a strong sense of their historical identities and characters. The Sitka History Museum will preserve and share our rich human history both for Sitka residents and for our cultural tourism economy.
